WHITE MATTER
1970

The
North Carolina
Baptist Hospital
School of Nursing
Winston-Salem
North Carolina

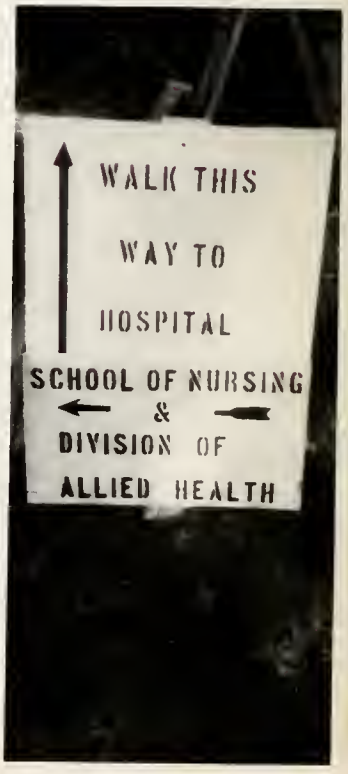
pressed between the pages of our mind . . .

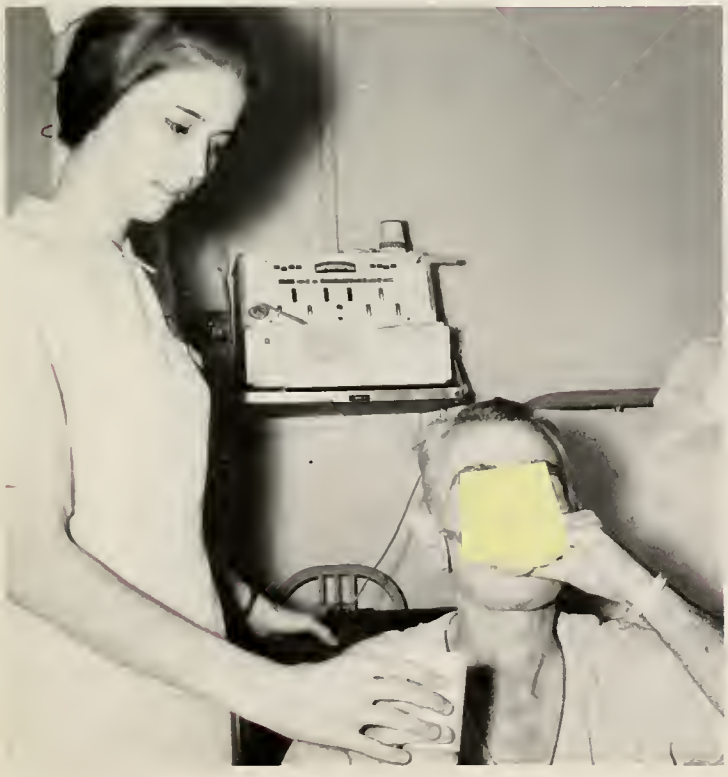
new surroundings-strangers become friends

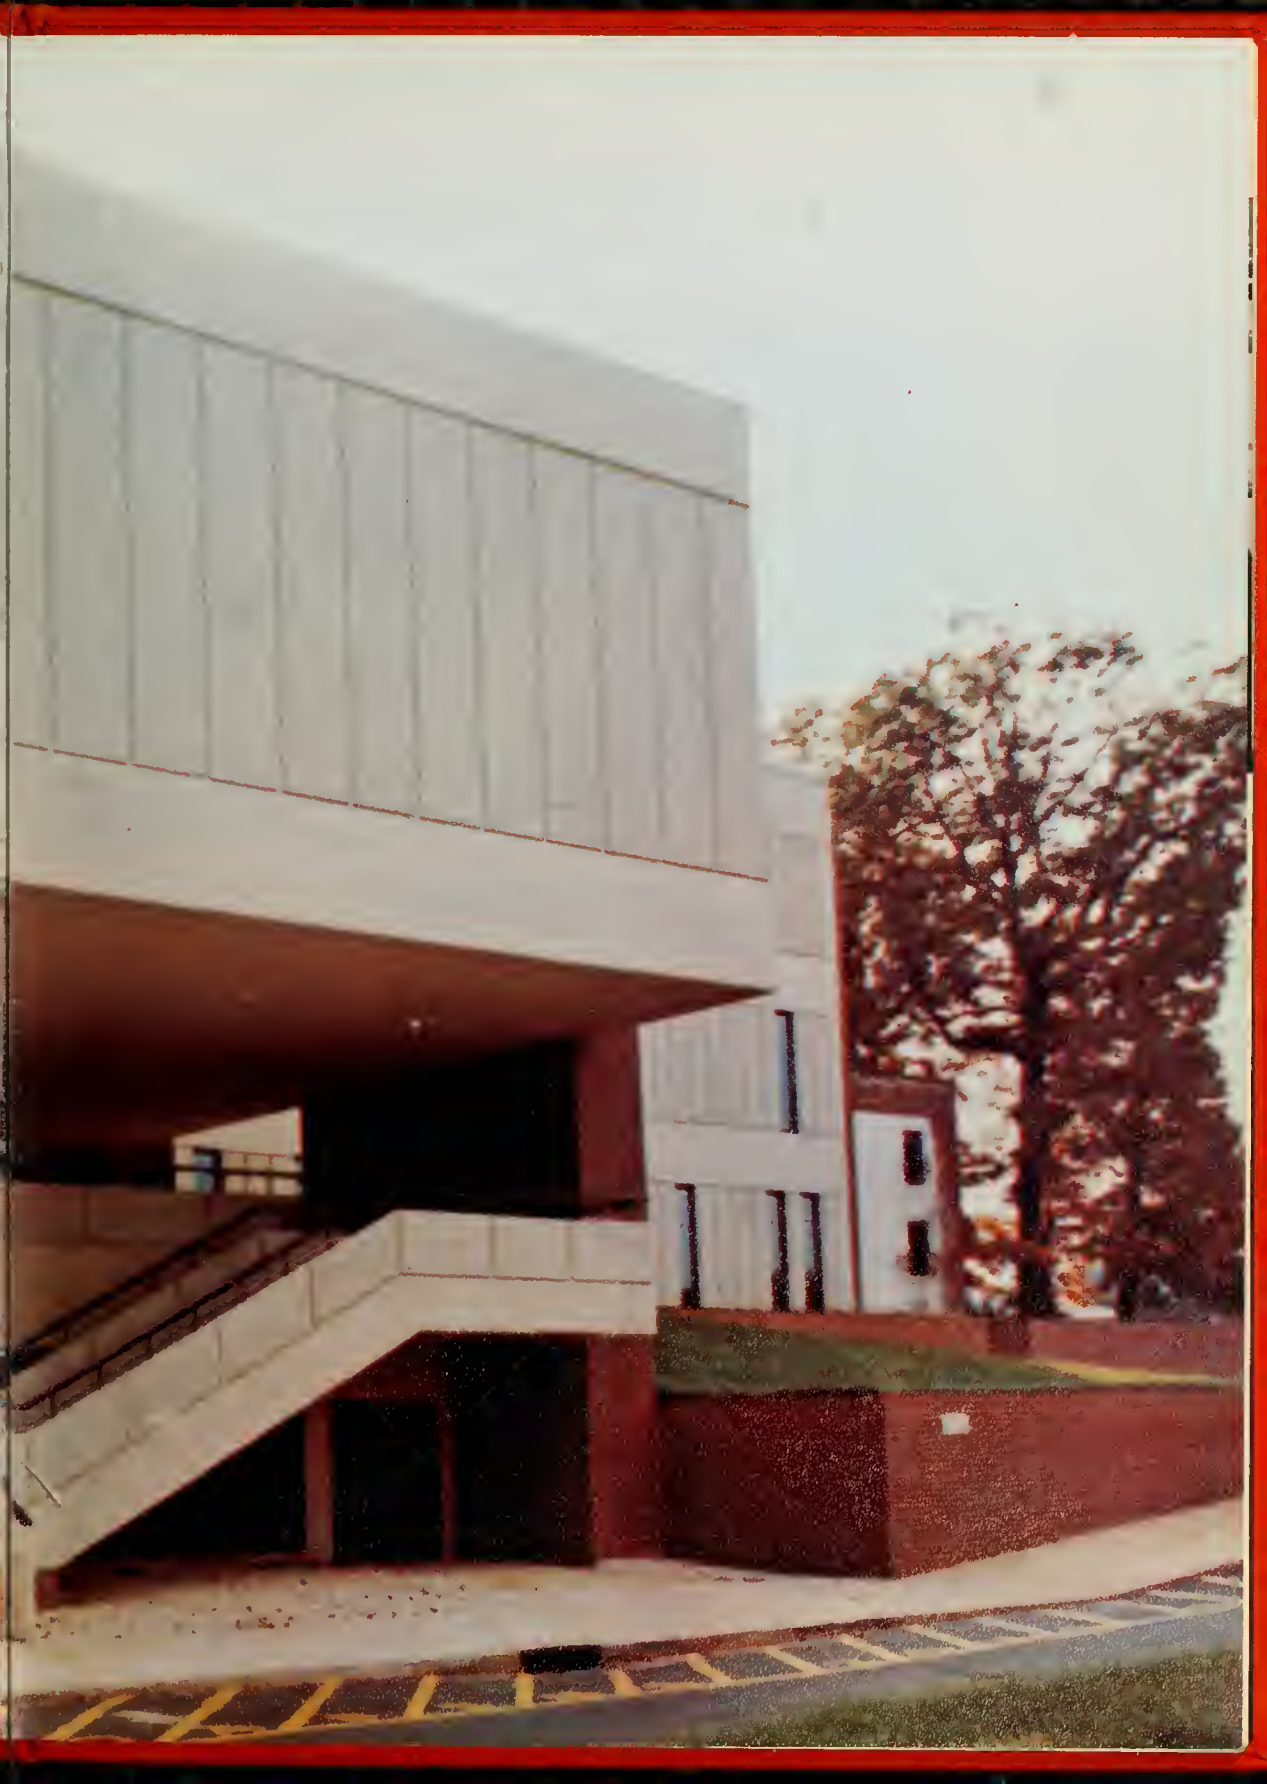
barerooms filled with hopes and dreams

our chance to grow, to learn, to know



those special people-that special life





turning girl into woman, woman into nurse labor of love giving birth to memories . . .

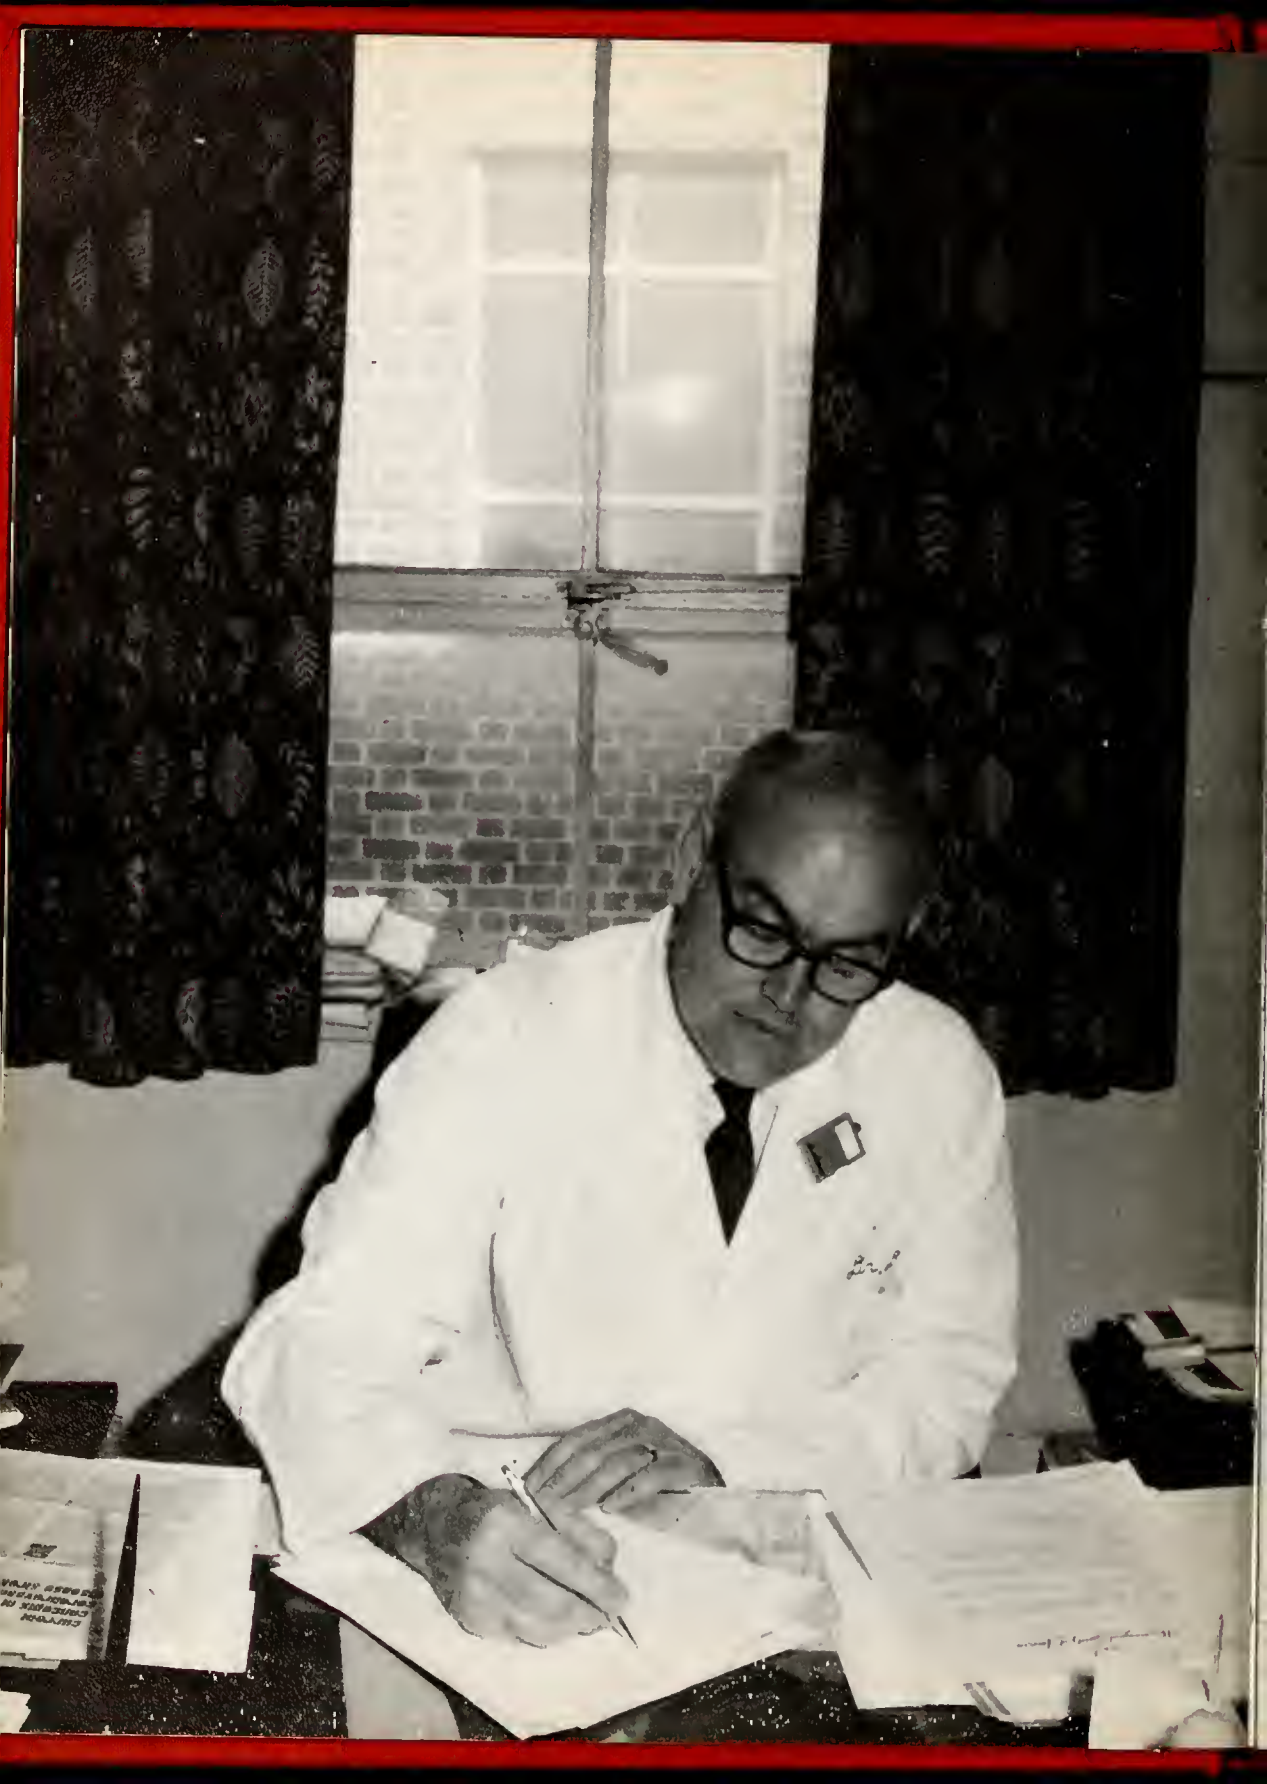
our refuge, our solace, our strength

our well of joy in years to come



Scared student nurses standing in awe . . .
A kind word . . . a smile . . . a friend.
Interested in us . . . always teaching.
A true friend . . . past, present, future.
For being our friend, we the Class of 1970 dedicate this annual to
Dr. Courtland H. Davis.

An adult voice speaks.
Not from a mob
In chaos, disorder, and anarchy;
But from his self-chosen
order,
His government.

Brenda Stafford, Student Nurse of the Year 1970

To live, or grow, or be
A community must Communicate.
Our little paper is our link
Between thoughts, and action,
And result.

Placebo Staff: Jan Griffin, Editor; Janice James, Assistant Editor; Pat Tantum, Circulation Manager; P. Lefler, S. Gibson, N. Perry, C. Friday, B. Jones, L. Robinson, L. Baldwin, C. Sparks, N. Taylor, L. Johnson, N. Laws, B. Stafford, J. Taylor, S. Whitt, P. Wilkins, M. Yount, R. Hooper.

A threshold
To new friendships,
Knowledge, and growth;
Reaching out to others
And beyond to tomorrow.

In the fall
We dance with leaves
Dressed in gold or scarlet;
But the trees are our Silent, skinney chaparones.

"Well dahhh-ling . . . "

Whether to win or lose
Or just to play,
Few things are more fun
Than sports,
And, of course, good sports.

Girls! Who are you trying to kid?

Reckon they'll fit?

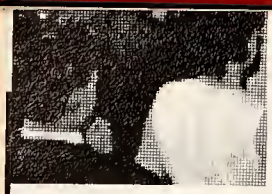
Children, children!

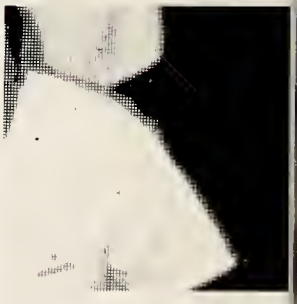
Warmth again.
And smiles are exchanged with a daisy.
The earth, the soul,
Life awakens and dances.

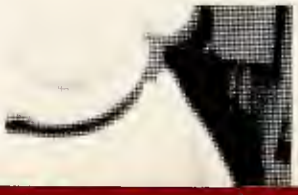
Hobby Night!
Ceramics, art
Sewing, cooking.
Proudly putting
Our talent on display.

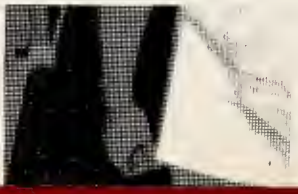
David took care of the prizes!

There is a freedom that comes
With summer's hot breath,
Like a saucy kite
Sailing away to see the world.









We leave you our yearbook. She has been loved and nurtured and has developed from a dream into a reality. She was thought about, thought about, put aside, and picked up again. From her conceivement to her birth, she has brought headaches, heartaches, and writer's cramp. She is yours now. Do with her what you will; but, be gentle—she is a part of us.

Ads

We dedicate this section of the annual to the business firms who have bought advertising space. The yearbook would not have been possible without their financial support. We urge you to patronize our advertisers in preference to others. They have been so kind to help us in our hour of need.

Let's put a little light on the subject.

Taken by surprise!

To all those graduating at North Carolina Baptist Hospital School of Nursing, ane sincere word:

To Have a Friend is to Be One

It takes only a moment, but there's no way to measure the happiness a little thoughtfulness can bring into someone's life. Little things—like sending congratulations or wishing a friend well—can often be the biggest things in another person's day. There's a Hallmark card in our store that's just right for a special wish for someone you know.
